DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 19-23 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The original rejection of claims 19-23 has been withdrawn and a new non final rejection of the claims has been presented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 19-23, 56, 57, 59, 60, 64 and 67 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Penn (6,685,141). As described in the first office action on the merits, Penn discloses every aspect of the present invention and further includes a secondary payload mounted to the exterior of the launch vehicle (see Col. 14, lines 15-17).

4. Claims 75-79 are rejected under 35 USC 102(e) as being anticipated by Penn (6,685,141). Penn discloses mounting a secondary payload to an exterior of a launch vehicle, boosting the launch vehicle into space, and separating the secondary payload from the launch vehicle using a release mechanism (see Col. 14, lines 15-17), using a release mechanism, a trigger signal (inherent),

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 49-55, 58, 61-63, 65, 66, 68-74, 80 and 81 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
